

2015 Summer Seminars

NIDA Intramural Research Program

Wednesdays (except where noted) at 12:00-1:00 p.m.

BRC 3C219

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| June 17 | Animal models of drug relapse: What can our furry friends tell us about drug addiction?
Jennifer Bossert, Ph.D.
Neurobiology of Relapse Section
Behavioral Neuroscience Branch |
| June 24 | Drug design for addiction
Amy Newman, Ph.D.
Chief, Molecular Targets & Medications Discovery Branch
Deputy Scientific Director, IRP |
| July 1 | What can MRI tell us about the human brain and drug abuse?
Sherry Ding, Ph.D.
Cognitive Neuroscience & Psychopharmacology Section
Neuroimaging Branch |
| July 8 | Pharmacology of ecstasy and designer drugs of abuse
Michael Baumann, Ph.D.
Designer Drug Research Unit
Molecular Targets & Medications Discovery Branch |
| July 14
(Tues.) | From bench to back alley: Addiction research in the age of the smartphone
David Epstein, Ph.D.
Treatment Section
Clinical Pharmacology & Therapeutics Branch |
| July 22 | Unlocking the secret language of neurons
Leslie Whitaker, Ph.D.
Molecular Mechanisms of Behavior Unit
Behavioral Neuroscience Branch |